

The Ultimate Partnership

Partner Perspective

Dear Valued Partner,

Due to the recent tragic events in Thailand, some storage networking suppliers have recently announced that their manufacturing operations have been suspended, and their ability to deliver network connectivity products may be delayed for several weeks.

QLogic is not impacted by this natural disaster and has had no disruption in its supply chain. QLogic capacity is not constrained, and the company is fully capable of meeting an increase in market and customer demand.

QLogic continues to offer sales promotions on key adapters and H-series switch products.
